DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-22, drawn to a method for identifying and/or obtaining a compound which inhibits infectivity of a protozoan pathogen.

Group II, claim(s) 23-24, drawn to a compound, which modulates protozoan pathogen infectivity.

Group III, claim(s) 25-26, drawn to a method of producing a pharmaceutically composition.

Group IV, claim(s) 27, drawn to a method for preparing a pharmaceutical composition.

Group V, claim 28, drawn to a composition comprising a compound.

Group VI, claim 29, drawn to use of a compound in the manufacture of a composition for treatment of a protozoan pathogen infection.

Group VII, claim 30-31, drawn to a method of administration a composition to a patient for treatment of a protozoan pathogen infection.

Group VIII, claim 32-36, drawn to a method of identifying a protozoan Rhomboid polypeptide.

Art Unit: 1655

The inventions listed as Groups I-VIII do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: what Groups I and II have in common is a compound that modulates protozoan pathogen infectivity, while what Groups I and VIII have in common is a protozoan Rhomboid polypeptide, thus there is no special technical feature. Thus, the groups of inventions are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1, and lack of unity exists.

Election of Species

This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

- A. The type of apicomplexan pathogen from among those instantly claimed-i.e., Plasmodium, Toxoplasma, Eimeria, etc.-see, e.g., claims 3 and 31.
- B. The type of Rhomboid polypeptide from among those instantly claimed-i.e., shown in Table 1 -see, e.g., claims 5 and 33.
- C. The type of substrate peptide from among those instantly claimed-i.e., shown in Table 2 and also see claims 9, 35, 10, 34, 36.

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species from each type (i.e., for Group A- elect Plasmodium, from among those instantly claimed such as recited in claim 3) to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

The following claim(s) are generic: 1, 30, 32.

The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: what Groups I and II have in common is a compound that modulates protozoan pathogen infectivity, while what Groups I and VIII have in common is a protozoan Rhomboid polypeptide, thus there is no special technical feature. Thus, the species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Art Unit: 1655

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
